

How Coyote is helping to drive your business forward

Company:

BikeFlights, US-based easy-to-use bicycle shipping service.

Challenge:

Moving the bikes during European Track Champions League races within two days after each event.

Coyote Logistics' Solution:

Dedicated FTL including ferry booking and customs handling, shipping the bikes on time and safely.

I would recommend working with Coyote.

The collaboration has delivered very positive things.

We've been able to deliver a 100%.

William Alcorn,
President, BikeFlights

Coyote Logistics allows businesses to basically go back to the way they were trading before Brexit.

Alistair Crichton,
CEO, Stateside Skates

Company:

Stateside Skates, international distributor of extreme sports products.

Challenge:

Used to export more than half of its business to customers within the EU, facing cross-channel shipping challenges after Brexit.

Coyote Logistics' Solution:

Dedicated support, international logistics and customs expertise including digital solutions, helping to overcome post-Brexit shipping hurdles.

Company:

Joe Murray Transport, family run transport company based in Ireland.

Challenge:

Didn't seem to have the power to work for bigger companies getting the work and lanes more suitable for its business.

Coyote Logistics' Solution:

Provided its digital freight platform CoyoteGO® and cross-channel logistics services, helping the company to discover an improved ability to customize the work and lanes to better align with its needs.

Since working with Coyote, our turnover has more than doubled.

Coyote allows us to specialize in what we do.

John Murray,
Director, J. Murray Transport
